Set behind a gated carriage driveway, this incredible and beautifully presented family home was rebuilt behind the original façade approximately 8-9 years ago and provides over 10,300 sq. ft /960 sq. m of accommodation. Winnington Road is a wide tree-lined street adjacent to the world-famous The Bishops Avenue. At the top of the street on Hampstead Lane lies Kenwood house, an English heritage building with extensive grounds open to the public and leading onto Hampstead Heath. Hampstead golf course is within a few moments' walk of the house and both Hampstead and Highgate villages are within easy reach.

The ground floor provides impressive open plan living accommodation of over 60ft / 18m with five sets of full height French doors leading on to a rear garden offering a large, stone terrace occupying the full width of the plot in the rear garden. Additionally, there is a state-of-the-art kitchen / breakfast room, a separate study and a guest cloakroom.

The first floor offers a large master bedroom suite of bedroom/sitting area, dressing room and bathroom with a further two double bedroom suites.

The top floor has three further bedroom suites and a large utility room.

The lower floor features a fabulous games/entertainment room, a gym with shower room, a cinema room with full surround sound, a staff bedroom suite, a wine cellar and a spectacular eight car garage/showroom.

Full Lutron system, full ducted air conditioning throughout – cooling and heating, gated carriage driveway, landscaped rear garden, car lift, electronically operated blinds and curtains.
