Situated in this private turning off Wildwood Road, is this extremely special and very desirable 5 bedroom, double fronted detached family home.

This stunning and rarely available property backs directly onto a communal paddock and is a stones throw away from the Hampstead Heath Extension.

Internally, the property is offered in immaculate condition with such features as hardwood flooring throughout the ground floor with under floor heating, a 'Bang & Olufsen' integrated AV system electric blinds and a gorgeous Bulthaup, eat-in kitchen/breakfast room with 'Gaggenau' appliances.

The dining room has French doors which lead out onto a picturesque 84' rear garden which gives you access to the amazing feature of the communal paddock.

The first floor features a principal bedroom with fitted wardrobes, a walk in dressing room and a striking ensuite shower room with a double vanity unit. A further family shower room services the remaining two bedrooms.

The top floor offers two further bedrooms and a family bathroom with utility area. Additionally there is off-street parking, a single garage and all fitted furniture was built and installed by specialist carpenters Barth in Northern Italy. The amenities of Temple Fortune and Golders Green underground station are within a short distance.
